Proverbs 31:10-31

If you find a valiant woman like this:

marry her . . .

---

honor her . . .

praise her . . .

she is worth far more than the
greatest riches . . .

Song of Songs 6:8-10

Sixty queens there may be,
and eighty concubines,
and virgins beyond number;

but my dove, my perfect one, is unique,
the only daughter of her mother,
the favorite of the one who bore her.

The young women saw her and called her blessed;
the queens and concubines praised her.

The greatest way to resist the corrosive teachings of our culture on the church family is for the older (mature) men to fulfill their God-defined role and for the older (mature) women to do the same.
